

CHILDREN CRUSHED BENEATH LUMBER

TWO WOMEN AND ANOTHER CHILD ARE INJURED, ALSO.

Selma, Ala., March 17.—Word of a deplorable accident which occurred at Jones Switch Thursday afternoon, whereby two children lost their lives, was received here today. The children were those of Mrs. Sanders and Mrs. Gossett. The mothers as well as a third child were injured also.

Both of the mothers with their children were out walking when they passed a large pile of lumber which had been stacked. As they were walking along the road the pile of lumber from some unaccountable cause fell. A child of Mrs. Sanders and Mrs. Gossett together with their mothers and a third child were buried beneath the lumber, but the two mothers managed to get out, with the youngest child practically uninjured. Men later picked the many planks from the forms of the other two children and their injuries were such they died shortly after being rescued.

ANOTHER REAL ESTATE DEAL

Mr. R. L. Gaines has bought the Mrs. Louise Brown residence on the corner of North Oates and Powell streets, and will occupy it about the first of the month. On moving here from Lafayette a year or two ago, Mr. Gaines thought he had best rent a while till he became more familiar with the town and property values, but he bought a farm north of town last year, and now he has bought a home. It is his intention to remodel the building within a year or so, making it a two-story building.

Little Albert Morgan is still seriously ill at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Morgan, on North Oates street.

Don't forget to telephone the Eagle when you have visitors. It makes it much more convenient for the visitors even, for then the postoffice clerks know where to send such mail.

DEATH OF A BABY.

On last Sunday morning, the 12th, death visited the home of our neighbor D. P. Youngblood, and took their little 2 year-old son, who had been sick for ten days.

The remains were laid to rest at Selma church on Monday. Rev. F. A. Rogers, pastor of the Foster St. Methodist Church at Dothan, conducted the services in a most suitable manner.

Mr. Youngblood and his good family have the sympathy of their many friends in this community in this their hour of trouble.

WOMAN FORCED TO DISROBE ON SHIP

CUSTOMS OFFICIALS SEARCH FOR A DIAMOND NECK- LESS.

New York, March 17.—The wife and a daughter of Joseph Hull, of Savannah, Ga., one of the wealthiest and most influential men in the South were required to disrobe in their state room aboard the steamship Lusitania today while a customs inspector, acting on a mysterious tip found subsequently to be false, made a mining search for a diamond necklace thought to have been purchased abroad. The search proving futile, Mrs. Hull and the daughter, Miss Eliza Lamar Hull, were allowed to proceed to their hotel where another daughter, Miss Nina W. Connelley, from an attack of typhoid fever, had preceded them without having been subjected to search.

Seized Several Articles.
The necklace rumor dismissed, customs inspectors scrutinized the family baggage and charging under valuations in the case of Mrs. Hull and the daughter, Miss Eliza L., seized the articles in question. Mother and daughter maintained they had acted in good faith, but their explanations were not considered satisfactory to Collector Loeb and the articles were seized. They consist entirely of wearing apparel and will be held until "the home value," that is the foreign cost, plus duty, is paid.

Joseph Hull, the husband and father, was on the pier to greet his wife and daughter, as was a son, Daniel, a cotton broker in this city. All were indignant at the proceedings and threatened to carry the matter to the courts if necessary.

Took Off Stockings

"We were made to take off even our stockings," said Mrs. Hull. "Every stitch of our clothing was searched and even our hair did not escape. I consider this treatment an outrage and I had no idea such a thing could happen in America."

It was explained for the family that the report concerning the necklace probably had come from Savannah, where "there was jealousy" over the facts that the Hulls were fortunate enough to enjoy luxuries and finery. As to the under valuation of charge, Daniel Hull said:
"My sister, Eliza, was the only one of the three who had previously been abroad, so yesterday my father sent a wireless warning mother and the girls to be very cautious and particular in making their declarations. As to the alleged under valuation the total can be no more than $150, and that was due to the ignorance of my mother and sisters and was done with on malicious intent."

Federal Laws Allow Search

Federal laws give the authorities power to search passengers suspected of having dutiable articles concealed about them, customs officials said. It was added that there has never been a suit brought as the result of such a search.

Joseph Hull came here from Savannah especially to meet his returning wife and daughters. He is one of the wealthiest men in Savannah, president of the Merchants National Bank of that city, a director of the Central of Georgia railway, and is president of the Prairie Pebble Phosphate Company.

HAREM SKIRT PRODUCES SHOCK

MOB OF 500 GATHERS ABOUT YOUNG WOMAN WHEN SHE APPEARS ON STREETS

Birmingham, Ala., March 17.—Birmingham was given a decided shock late this afternoon when an unknown young woman appeared on the downtown streets in a Harem skirt. There was no question about its interfering with traffic. The curious grew to a regular mob and no less than 500 people followed her for the few blocks she walked before rushing in to one of the big buildings for protection. The crowd waited but she did not reappear.

WOMAN THROWN FROM WINDOW

MRS. HEBE'S ALMOST LIFELESS BODY IS FOUND ON SIDE- WALK BY POLICE

Birmingham, Ala., March 17.—Charged with attempting the life of Mrs. Hebe by gagging her and throwing her body out of a window, Missie Backs and W. F. Hill, both white, will be brought before Judge Fegles Tuesday next for preliminary hearing.

The alleged deed is said to have taken place Thursday night late, in a rooming house on Twenty-fourth street and Second avenue, north. The woman's body was found outside the house by police officers, who thought she was dead. She afterward recovered at the Hillman Hospital. What the exact circumstances were have not been divulged yet.

It seems that the three, Mrs. Hebe, Missie Backs and Hill were in the room together. According to the officers, a quarrel must have followed. The room in question was on the second floor. In any event, Mrs. Hebe was found outside with a gag in her mouth and apparently dead. She was removed to the Hillman Hospital where after hard work on the part of the physician, she recovered sufficiently to give officers information which led to the arrest of Hill and Missie Backs.

She charged that the Backs woman and Hill attacked and gagged her, then threw her headlong out of the window.

It pleases a man to tell him that he is a keen observer.

It pleases a woman sometimes to tell her you know she meant one thing while she said another.

It is astonishing with what alacrity the press falls into the habit of using war terms, and military words, as they did a dozen years ago.

There is about as much need for the streets to be sprinkled now since they were paved as before. The streets ought to be sprinkled before they are swept.

The thirteen-dollar-a-month boys of Uncle Sam's are entitled to some change of scenery, and they had about as well go to Texas for it as anywhere else.

President Diaz has given orders for some of the troublesome ones to be shot by the man or men who capture them. They will be mighty discouraging for future uprisings.

Everybody seems to have been bothered about the disappearance of Dorothy Arnold except her people. A little three line article will tell us some day what really became of the girl.

Roosevelt and Taft both came South at the same time, and yet things seemed to have moved about as well in the Outlook office, and White House, as if both places had been inhabited.

The moon is going to change around a little in day or two, and those who have been studying the habits of the moon for four or five hundred years say that we are likely to have some rain then.

The Atchafalpa Globe says France has fallen on in population, but can see where it might have been worse. For instance, it thinks that if the Kentucky form of dueling was practiced in France, that the population would have shown a sluff.

About a thousand people in Alabama are of the opinion that Governor O'Neal is taking his time about making some appointments. Well you can hardly blame him. Nearly every time he has made an appointment, some one has reared up about it.

About a fourth of our army is down on the Texas and Mexican border, fighting mosquitoes and dust, waiting for something to be started. The chief ramped of the commissary department has bought four months' ration for them, figuring that they will be there for some time yet.

It has been discovered—probably the advertiser—that there are but two papers in the country that stick to the Rooseveltian theory of spelling through, with "thru." We have discovered them at times in the papers, but usually you find the occasion where the word comes at the end of the line, and the linotype operator figures that it will pass the proof reader, rather than "run it over." All the high browed magazines that fell to the habit have sneaked out of the practice without blow or bluster.

SEVENTY THOUSAND

It is such a common thing for Jay towns and cities to have a population of seventy thousand.

After the federal census has been taken. They peter out about a year before the time to take the census, and then start up again after the big count is made.

Dothan, with all of her thrift and enterprise, has never set a mark.

We are about to set a mark for Dothan for the next census.

That mark is 20,000 people.

Laugh? Of course you do.

Laughing is common; you laughed twenty years ago at the people who laid off the streets of this town. You didn't see any use in spending a good cotton patch for town lots, but the cotton patch was badly damaged by brick building growing where cotton had been growing.

When the optimist predicted artesian water it was to laugh. We had plenty of wells and electric lights were not to be considered. Uncle Butler Kelly started out late in the evening, with his little four-step ladder on his arm, to light up the town, using the old oil lights.

In time, when the enterprising spirit got started good, we not only drilled a well, but two, and then more, and on and on. We put in a first class water works, then a lighting plant, and then, what looked out of keeping with the town, we put in a sewer system. Yes, a modern sewer system. Not satisfied there, the town paved the streets of the down town section, and are paving all of the sidewalks in the residence section.

We began to move out of wooden school building, or the school building, for we had but one way back yonder. We tore it down and built a modern brick building. Built modern churches, and kept building school buildings, till the town is noted for its school facilities and churches.

And during all of this time, there were people who laughed, but they asked fabulous prices for their own property all the while, and got them, which is better.

So all along, since the incorporation of the town, there have been a few people who didn't think the town could be much of a place.

But in spite of them, we have grown from 320 in 1890, to 3,200 in 1900, and 7,116 in 1910.

If you know how to figure ratio and such things, see if we are not safely headed toward the 20,000 point during the next ten years. All precedents are in our favor. In fact, this is a modest claim. If things were to pick up a little more lively, we would reach 25,000 in 1920. And it doesn't take that time long to come.

In five years more we expect to have doubled the population, for we double about every five years. That will put us in the 14,000 class, and if we can't pick up the other 6,000 during the last home stretch, we will have lost some of our Dothan spirit.

The Dothan Eagle will look for the 20,000 just like it looks for the tax collector, with every reason to believe that it will come.

The last two or three years the town has grown more than at any other period of its existence.

It would take something awful to keep us away from the 10,000 by the end of 1912, and nearly everybody else think we will have way before that time, but we are conservative, always under guessing just a little.

FRANKLINS VS. CICERONIANS.

The semi-annual debate between the Franklin and Ciceronian Literary societies of the Dothan High School, of last night, was won by the Ciceronians, while the Franklins carried away the honors for the best speeches.

There was a lively contest between the two forces and both sides made a good showing.

The debaters had spent considerable time on their arguments and wore well up on statistics, facts and necessary illustrations on the subject of "Resolved that the United States Should Levy an Income Tax." The winning side, which was the negative, was represented by Messrs Myer Blumberg and Eldridge Melton, and for the affirmative the Franklins presented Messrs Percy Newton and Willie Odum.

Each of the declaimers were highly applauded by the audience and won praise for themselves. Miss Lorette McLeannan was declared the best reader and B. F. Green the best declaimer. Each of these were Franklins. Percy Newton, a Franklin debator, was declared to be the best speaker.

The largest crowd that has attended the debates were present last night.

Dr. J. Frazer Orr has returned from Elba and other places in Coffee county where he has been for several days.

OPTIMISM

J. A. Stephens of Midland City was in Dothan yesterday evening on business. He is one man who always speaks a good word for his town, wherever he lives. When he lived in Dothan, he talked Dothan; now that he lives in Midland City, he sees but the good things for that town.

He says that during the last few months thirty or forty families have moved in. Half of them probably are farmers, who rented out their farms and built in town to be convenient to the schools there.

It is the optimistic spirit that keeps up a town.

AN INFANT 100 YEARS OLD TO BE ELECTROCUTED

Pastor Russell Explains Isaiah Inv. 26
Brooklyn, Mar. 11.—A year ago Pastor Russell's audiences were too great for "Brooklyn Tabernacle" and Brooklyn's largest and finest Auditorium, the Academy of Music, was secured.

Every seat was filled and a few turned away on the occasion of his last discourse here February 5. Today, however, hundreds were unable to gain admittance and are promising themselves to go earlier next time. "It looks as though a still larger auditorium should be sought."

Pastor Russell translated a text to read, "Thenceforth there shall be no more (death of) an infant of days, nor of an old man who hath not filled his days; for the dying one shall be but a child at a hundred years old—a sinner a hundred years old shall be accursed"—cut off from life. He pointed out from the text that this statement is a prophecy respecting the future—respecting the time when Messiah's Kingdom will rule the world. The verses following the text, he said, indicate clearly that in that glorious Epoch laudiorum will be a thing of the past. People will build their own houses and inhabit them; plant their own vineyards and enjoy the fruit thereof. They give a description of the period when sin will be giving place to righteousness; and sorrow and death will be giving place to happiness and life—perfect and lasting.

Two Salvations Taught in the Bible.
All of us in the past have misread our Bibles and not noticed that there are two salvations. One will be heavenly conditions like unto the angels, where there will be no planting, no building, etc. This is the salvation offered from Pentecost to the present time, to the faithful few who walk in the footsteps of Jesus and make their "calling and election sure." The other salvation will be an earthly one. It will recover mankind from sin, degradation, sorrow and death, to human perfection, to earthly places, in a world-wide Paradise restored. But this earthly blessing or salvation has not come to mankind as yet and cannot come before its time. St. Peter tells us that those "times of restitution of all things which God hath spoken by the mouth of all the holy prophets since the world began" will begin at the Second Coming of Christ—after he shall have selected the saintly few who will constitute his Bride, his joint-heirs, in his glory, honor and immortality—his associates in the Messianic Kingdom.

Living and Dead—Just and Unjust.

Pastor Russell declares that God's provision for the Church will include not only those alive at the Second Coming of Christ, but also, by a resurrection change, all those who have fallen asleep in Christ throughout this Gospel Age. These will constitute the "first resurrection," and as priests of God and Christ will reign with him a thousand years (Revelation xx, 4).

Just so also, the earthly blessings will include not only the people living at the time of the inauguration of that Reign of Righteousness, but also, as the Redeemer said, "All that are in their graves"—the evil as well as the good. The saintly ones coming forth will have their reward immediately because of their faithfulness during their trial time, which precedes the trial time of the world. Then the mass of mankind, aside from the Church class, will all be brought to a knowledge of the Truth—heaven and civilized—none will any longer be allowed to grope in darkness or to be blinded by Satan and the attractions of sin. Satan himself will be bound and all the fallen angels with him will be restrained from deluding or having anything further to do with humanity. The light of the glory of God will fill the whole earth as the waters cover the great deep. Every knee shall bow and every tongue confess to Messiah—the glory of God the Father.

Hundred-Year Old Children.

In the beginning, before our race had fallen so far into death, some of its members lived to be several hundred years old, and that under the unfavorable conditions of the curse—thorns, thistles, etc. At that time, said the Pastor, human kind who were only a hundred years old were but as children. Today, after six thousand years of experience under the full, centuries are rare—and these are old men returning to second childhood. The restitution processes of Emmanuel's reign of righteousness will have so uplifting and blessed an effect on mankind as to bring back, not only strength of morals and of mind and of will, but also physical strength—youth, vigor.

Every man will have a century of schooling, of instruction, of preparation for living. Open and violent wickedness and injury to others will not be permitted at that time. Nevertheless, there will be many opportunities for testing, proving, training mankind. The disobedient will receive punishments, "stripes." The well-doers will be blessed, rewarded, uplifted. But after having enjoyed a century of such schooling and correction in righteousness, those still rejecting the Divine regulations will be sentenced, as sinners, to be "cut off from life."

Lawrence, Kan., Mr. J. F. Stone of this city, says, "My wife suffered for ten years from womanly troubles, during two years of which she was totally helpless. She was examined by many physicians, some of whom gave her up to die. Finally she began to take Cardul, and since then has greatly improved in health.
